Powell Gardens Offers One-Hour Weddings on Valentine's Day

Kansas City, Mo. Jan. 23, 2017 – Powell Gardens, Kansas City's botanical garden, is offering couples the chance to say "I do" in the iconic Marjorie Powell Allen Chapel on Valentine's Day with a new one-hour wedding package.

This unique experience includes a 60-minute ceremony with live violin accompaniment in the Marjorie Powell Allen Chapel, a bouquet and boutonniere for the bride and groom, photographer, a romantic garden carriage ride and a champagne toast. Perfect for first-timers or vow renewals, this one-of-a-kind experience eliminates the stress of planning and offers the special couple a day of romance, luxury and relaxation.

"Powell Gardens is truly a place to make memories and celebrate life," said Tabitha Schmidt, president and executive director of Powell Gardens. "As Kansas City's botanical garden, we are delighted to offer this rare, economical opportunity to get married in one of the most beautiful settings in the Kansas City area."

This exclusive wedding package costs $550 and includes all of the features listed above. Ceremonies performed by Two-Hearts Weddings will begin at 10 a.m. Tuesday, February 14, Valentine's Day.

Violinist Miranda Grummon will perform the music; Inspirations in Bloom will create unique floral arrangements for the bouquet and boutonniere; Bella Bree Photography will provide the photographer, Rusty Carriages will provide the garden carriage rides. Reservations can be made by calling 816-697-2600, ext. 228.

Powell Gardens

Powell Gardens, Kansas City's botanical garden, resides on 970 acres of lush, rolling hills just east of Kansas City on U.S. Hwy. 50. Known for its contemporary architecture and stunning display gardens, Powell Gardens offers classes, performances and festivals year-round. In 2009, the Heartland Harvest Garden, a 12-acre expansion that encompasses one of the nation's largest edible landscapes, was opened to the public.

Thirty miles east of Kansas City U.S. Hwy. 50, Powell Gardens is open seven days a week year-round (except Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and New Year's Days).
